II. Approve previous minutes

III. President's Report (SONYA/ MARC to lead as Maria is away)

VI. New Business

A. Residency

- The PA funds one residency program per grade each semester.

B. Field Trips

- Grades K-2 will have field trips for three days during the state tests in spring.
- There was a discussion about fundraising for school trips.

C. Book Fair Budget

- Approval of a $300 budget for the book fair.

D. Class Parent Program

- The Class Parent Program should be managed by parents and not overseen by school authorities.

E. Event Volunteers

- There are no additional parent volunteers to chair events currently. A new sign-up sheet needs to be sent out.
- December's movie night will be run by Marc, and January's Lunar New Year movie night will be run by Anna.

F. Flyers

- The PA has been asked to create half-sized flyers to reduce paper usage.

G. Fundraising for 5th Grade

- It was suggested that the current 5th-grade class fundraise $5,500 for their debate program this year.
- Last year, the school funded the Dancing Classrooms program. This year, the PA is willing to fund it, which will cost $7,000.
- According to the bylaws, any expenditure exceeding $500 requires approval from all parents.
- This matter will be discussed during the next PA meeting to get full PA input.
- An email should be sent to encourage 5th-grade parents to attend.

J. Residency Information

- It is recommended that Ms. Carracci share residency program details with parents.
